CHICAGO (AP) — The Inland Steel Co. broke the chain of price rises by steel firms today by announcing it will not make any changes in prices at this time.

The company, in an action which may cause price boosting firms to reconsider, issued this statement:

"Inland Steel Co. today announced that it will not make any adjustments in existing prices of its steel mill products at this time.

"The company has long recognized the need for improvement in steel industry profits in relation to capital invested. It believes this condition, which does exist today, will have to be corrected.

"Nevertheless, in full recognition of the national interest and competitive factors, the company feels that it is untimely to make any upward adjustments."

Roger M. Blough, chairman of U.S. Steel, was asked Thursday at a New York news conference whether the price increase could stick if Inland and Armco Steel Corp. decline to boost prices.

"It would definitely affect us," Blough said, "and I don't know how long we can maintain our position."

Army Change Orders for Steel Supply

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon today ordered defense contractors and their suppliers to shift steel purchases to those companies which have not raised prices.

The action was announced by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

In a statement and brief news conference, McNamara also said that:

"If the steel price increase 'fans out' across the country's economy, national defense costs could rise a billion dollars or more a year.

"The impact of increased costs could affect the dollar balance abroad and 'we cannot expect to maintain our forces overseas if our trade balance does not improve.'"

At the direction of President Kennedy, the Pentagon is examining possible substitutes for steel.

McNamara said that iron and steel prices have increased 90 per cent since 1947, while nonferrous metals prices have increased only 40 per cent.

Lumber Firm's Sawmill Gutted by Fire

FIRE OF UNDETERMINED ORIGIN DESTROYED THE main sawmill of the Hope Lumber Manufacturing Co., Inc., on Highway 29 South, early today. The picture above shows the smoking ruins and the loss was total. An unofficial estimate placed the loss in excess of $100,000.

HOPE FIREMEN WERE CALLED TO THE SCENE ABOUT 1:15 a. m. and found the mill completely engulfed by flames. They kept the blaze from spreading to other buildings. Besides the sawmill an estimated 50,000 feet of lumber was burned.

FIREMEN MANAGED TO KEEP THE BLAZE FROM spreading to the boiler rooms, the planer mill, dry kilns, debarking machine and the company office. They fought the blaze for nearly three hours.

THE MILL WAS BUILT BY GRAYDON ANTHONY WHO sold out March 20 to a Memphis group headed by Claud Stacey, president. The mill had been idle for some time and had just started operations under the new owners, employing 67 workers.

COMPANY PLANS COULDN'T BE LEARNED AT THIS time but a spokesman said he believed the sawmill would be rebuilt. The mill was partially covered by insurance.

"I think every voter should be considered as a stockholder," he said then.

Dorsey has never sought political office before.

Dorsey said friends had been urging him to make the race for some time, and "this kind of thing snowballs."

He lives near Sheridan with his wife and three children.

Spring Storm Hits Sections of Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A spring storm that blanketed northern sections of the Midwest with up to a foot of wet snow last night pushed into the great lakes region.

The region was chilled during the night by snow flurries, rain and rain mixed with snow. Rain also doused the Ohio Valley and the Atlantic Coast states from Georgia to Maine. Albany, N.Y., reported 4 inches of snow.

Heavy rains that drenched the Southeast the past two days appeared to be letting up, but not in time to stem flooding in Alabama and Mississippi.

The Tallapoosa River threatened Milledgeville, Ala., near Montgomery where 4 inches of rain fell in a 24-hour period. Flood waters from King Creek closed four factories Thursday in Tupelo, Miss., which was swamped by more than 10 inches in an 18-hour period.

The unexpected heavy snowfall in parts of North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa and Minnesota Thursday forced the Minnesota Twins to postpone their American League opener scheduled for today. Snow on the playing field was six inches deep.

Heaviest snowfall in the area was 12 inches at Pipestone, Minn. Temperatures dropped sharply during the night in the snow area. Bemidji, Minn., reported 16 degrees as freezing temperatures covered Upper Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, northern Iowa and the eastern two-thirds of the nation with the 50s and 60s reported during the night in the extreme South. Temperatures dropped into the 70s in Florida which is enjoying summerlike readings. It was 90 Thursday in Jacksonville, topping by 3 degrees the previous high for the day set in 1943.

Thinks Gov. Faubus Will Re-consider

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams said Thursday night he's guessing that Gov. Orval E. Faubus "will be in this gubernatorial campaign yet."

Adams' remarks came before 300 social workers attending the Arkansas State Welfare Conference, Paubus was scheduled to address the group but was unable to.

Referring to the governor's announced retirement, Adams said, "I don't know how many times people have said to me that we can't take that for an answer."

"I'm not sure whether he is rid of politics or if he won't be in the campaign this summer," Adams said. "But my personal guess is that he will be in this campaign yet."

Faubus announced over a statewide television broadcast March 31 that he would not seek a fifth term. But he left the door open to a future campaign.

Budget at Ouachita $1.4 Million

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) —

The Ouachita College board of directors adopted Thursday a record budget of $1,408,076 for the coming fiscal year.

The board said the budget included a major salary increase for instructors at the college.

The board voted to confer honorary doctorates at May 27 commencement exercises on Rev. R. L. South, pastor of the Park Hill Baptist Church at North Little Rock and state Education Commissioner Arch W. Ford, a Baptist layman of Conway.

Dr. Ralph Phelps Jr., was re-appointed to a 10th term as president of the college. Guy Nelson was named registrar of the college, replacing Mrs. Frances Crawford, who is retiring from full-time duties. Nelson was assistant registrar.

The board also voted to establish an extension center this fall at Camden, to cooperate with possible industrial development of the former Shumaker Naval depot and to secure preliminary plans for a new physical education building.

There was no elaboration on the latter projects.

The last session of the Pastor's Training Class for Children will be held Saturday evening at 7:30 at the Methodist Church when the children and their parents will receive the Holy Communion.

Tomatoes Usually Hurt Internally

The Lighter Side
By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Friends, that tomato you picked up, so fair, unblemished and seemingly in the pink of condition, could be a case of beauty being only skin deep.
The poor thing may be suffering from internal injuries.
The theory that tomatoes are highly susceptible to internal bruising has just been resoundingly confirmed in the research laboratories of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
A report on the study brings to light some of the most fascinating discoveries that I have seen in many a day.
"First of all, the researchers established various ways that tomatoes can be bruised. They found that bruising can occur when tomatoes are squeezed lightly together in a box," when there is a "rough handling of the boxes," and "from dropping individual tomatoes on hard surfaces."
Not Previously Suspected
As far as I know, nobody had previously suspected that dropping a tomato on a hard surface might cause it harm.
The researchers then made some laboratory tests "to measure the amount of damage at various stages of ripeness when they were dropped distances ranging from 6 to 18 inches on a hard surface, and when dropped on a soft surface covered with a layer of foam rubber."
This led to the startling revelation that "injury to those dropped on hard surfaces was much the more serious."
If I interpret that correctly, it means that tomatoes are more badly bruised when dropped on a hard surface than when dropped on a soft surface. Eureka!
And that isn't all. The researchers also found that — hold onto your hats! — "the ripest tomatoes were injured most" by the dropping.
Stated As Fact
That may be hard to believe, but the report states it as a fact. Furthermore, it says that injury from the dropping "was found to be cumulative; that is, when tomatoes were dropped two or more times, the damage was found to extend to more and more internal parts."
That conclusion especially came as a shock to me. I had always believed that the more you dropped a tomato, the better.
The tomato research, valuable though it may be, had what I regard as one serious shortcoming. Apparently, the tests did not establish whether the damage is greater when the tomatoes are dropped at 6 inches or at 18 inches.
I trust that point will be cleared up in future experiments. And then I hope the researchers will do some comparable work on the effect that dropping has on eggs.

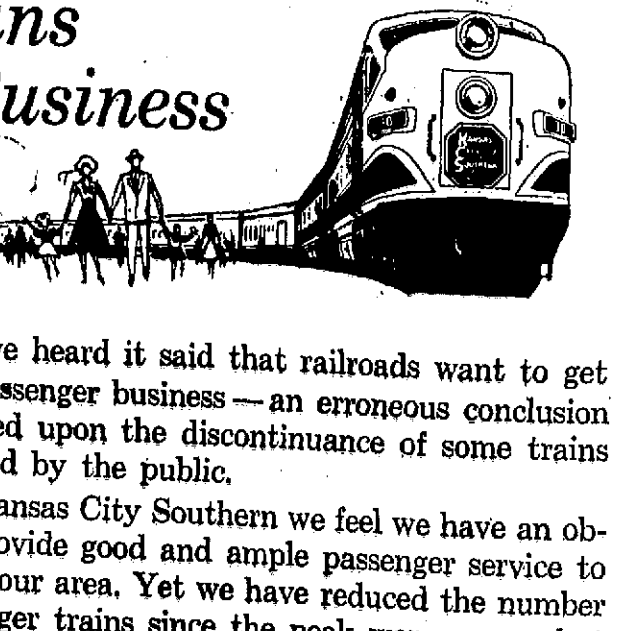

Ominous Ring to Word Used by Catholics

By JULES LOH
Associated Press Staff Writer
The word excommunication has an ominous ring.
Because the word is back in the news, in connection with the New Orleans dispute over integration of Catholic schools, it's worth examining in some detail. The Catholic Church, like any other organization, has certain rules for its members. Should member deliberately and openly violate a rule, he forfeits some of the benefits of membership — provided he is fully aware of both the rule and the penalty.
That, broadly, is what excommunication is.
It is the most severe form of church censure, used only as a last resort after persuasion has failed.
Acts which carry the penalty are defined in Catholic canon law. They range from forcing a person to become a priest or nun to selling indulgences and marrying before a non-Catholic minister. Key provisions, however, are that the offender knows that he is about to do would result in excommunication but does it deliberately anyway.
In New Orleans, one of the segregationist leaders disclosed that a confidential letter she received from the archbishop said:
"We deem it our duty to admonish you that any further attempt by you through word or deed to hinder our orders or provoke our devoted people to disobedience or rebellion against the church will subject you to excommunication."
The archbishop had refused to reveal the contents of the letter, which serves to point out that, as one authority put it: excommunication is medicinal rather than punitive. Its aim is to protect the church and correct the offender; punishment is only a secondary purpose.
Nor is it intended to sever a person from God, only from the church. A person under the usual form of excommunication doesn't even lose membership in the church. He may attend all its services but may not take an active part in some of them, and it may not receive any of the sacraments except penance (confession).
George Romney, former head of American Motors and a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Michigan, termed Kennedy's indignation understandable, but added that the development "only highlights the inadequacy and danger of our continuing to deal with such problems on a crisis basis."
Joseph Curran, head of the National Maritime Union, called the steel price rise the price of government intervention in management-labor affairs.
However, some steel executives were taken aback by the sweeping extent of the move. They noted it applied to such products as pipe and wire, which had been weak and had undergone a price-cutting siege less than a year ago.
Dr. Herman E. Kroos, an economic historian said he doubted that the price boost, even if followed by all steel companies, would stick. He predicted some shading of prices based on the industry's history and its current economic status.
Dr. Roy L. Reiersen, economist and senior vice president of New York Banker's Trust Co., termed the move unfortunate because of its likely effect on the nation's balance-of-payments problem.
One steel user said his company can't raise prices on orders already booked for its products. Can makers are in the same boat because they sell on three-month contracts negotiated in advance.
The head of a big plumbing and heating company, however, was pleased by the steel boost, claiming it will help to firm up prices.
Some companies are afraid they can't get away with raising the price of their products because of competitive situations.
Plastics may gain, too, as a substitute for steel in a number of products. "We'll definitely be going more and more to plastics and aluminum," said one fishing reel manufacturer.

Okays Plans to Build Pipeline

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Western Gas Co. of Fayetteville got Public Service Commission approval today of its plans to build a 12 inch pipeline in Madison and Washington Counties.
The 4½ mile pipeline will increase the firm's capacity in the Fayetteville area from 58.4 to 63.5 million cubic feet. Cost is estimated at $318,636.
The PSC received an application today from Arkansas Telephone Co. for authority to borrow $580,000 from the Rural Electrification Administration.
The firm, which operates exchanges at Clinton and Shirley, adjacent rural areas in Van Buren and Cleburne Counties, said it needs $478,100 to finance a five-year improvement program, $93,800 to retire existing long term debt, and $7,800 to pay costs of the new loan.
Two signers of the Declaration of Independence later became U. S. presidents: Thomas Jefferson and John Adams.
A more severe form of excommunication is rarely invoked and it is only for particularly grave crimes such as a slaying violent hands on the Pope. It usually requires that the person be named publicly. Thereafter he may not ever enter the church.
Three have been a number of cases of excommunication in the United States, one of them in Louisiana.
In 1955 Bishop Jules B. Jeanmard of Lafayette, La. excommunicated some parishioners who beat up a catechism teacher during an integration dispute. The bishop said anyone else who dares to interfere with the ministry of the priest also would be excommunicated automatically.

Passenger Business Remains Our Business

You may have heard it said that railroads want to get out of the passenger business — an erroneous conclusion probably based upon the discontinuance of some trains no longer used by the public.

Here at Kansas City Southern we feel we have an obligation to provide good and ample passenger service to the people of our area. Yet we have reduced the number of our passenger trains since the peak war years — but only after convincing (and costly) proof that you, our patrons, no longer considered the service necessary.

We have no intention of going out of the passenger business. Rather, we hope to improve our service so that you and others may have the benefit of the safest, most enjoyable, most economical way to travel.

We earnestly seek your help to this end!

Billy McKenzie will be accompanied home Friday night by John Thompson of Cortland, N.Y. to spend the Easter holidays with Dr. and Mrs. Jim McKenzie. The boys are classmates in Philadelphia.

Little Miss Mary Elizabeth Jones, of Dimmit, Tex. is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bridgers.

Dear Helen: You published a letter not long ago from a woman who complained that her husband made fun of her in public. She seemed proud of the fact that she appeared young enough to be her husband's daughter, even commented upon keeping her hair a lovely color.

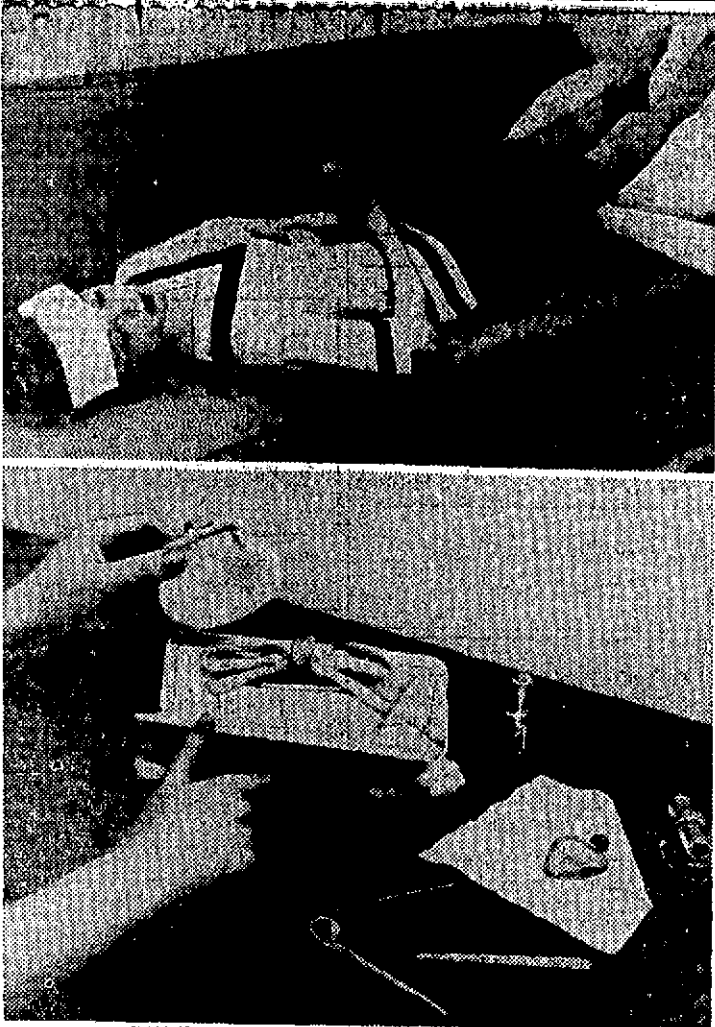

Perhaps if she looked more a wife and less like a daughter her husband would not ridicule her. Most people who poke fun at others do so because of an inferiority complex. For the wife to retaliate by teasing him in public (as you suggested) could well drive them into a divorce court.

I have the most wonderful husband in the world and never tire of telling him how much I love him. I suggest that this woman stop dyeing her hair, look her age and let her husband know how

Girl in Quandary
Over Minister

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My minister has fallen in love with me and proposes marriage. I like him but he is a widower and more than twice my age. I am 25, he 52.

In a sense I regard him as a haven of refuge. Only recently my heart was broken by a boy whom I loved dearly and I thought loved me. He married another girl.

Everything seemed to go wrong with him. After the marriage he was in an automobile accident and landed in a hospital with a broken leg. I visited him long enough to say, "I never cursed you nor wished you had for I still love you!" Then I cried. He said he was sorry. I said, "There's nothing you can do, goodbye."

When I got home my minister called me. It was as if he were an angel sent from heaven saying, "Don't worry. God loves you." He is well-to-do and has everything a girl could ask for: position, a comfortable income, brains — and is handsome. We share the same tastes but I don't love him nor am I the type of girl who falls into anybody's arms and I still love this boy who jilted me.

My minister is pressing for the answer I can't give him. Can you make sense out of this muddle and lend a helping hand. — Girl in a Quandary

Dear Girl: The very fact that you can't bring yourself to say yes is reason enough to say no, at least for the present. To marry on the rebound, which is exactly what you would be doing, is dangerous. Give yourself time to recover from this wound to your heart, then re-examine your thoughts.

Ask yourself what you want of life. Are you prepared to make the sacrifices which being a minister's wife (rich or poor) entails? Do you realize what marrying a man 27 years older than you will eventually mean? If the minister really loves you he will say as I do, take your time and know your own mind before giving him your answer.

much she enjoys being his wife. We've been married 10 years, have two children and — every year seems happier than the previous one. — Mrs. James Ellington, Richmond, Ind.

Dear Mrs. Ellington: In the case of this particular husband, I felt that a dose of his own medicine was the surest cure. As for a wife looking her age, that's a liability, not a virtue. Certainly she'll not kid herself nor anybody else by acting Sweet 16 when she's the shady side of 50. But it's no crime for a woman to look her best no matter what her age. I say if coloring your hair makes you more attractive, then choose the shade most compatible with your complexion and go to it. My husband agrees!

$47,000 Fire at Searcy

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Fire destroyed the Charles Smith Tractor Co. here Wednesday night and damage was estimated by the owner at $47,000.

The fire was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Evans as they drove past. They reported it and firemen arrived in time to save the T. O. Collins Sale Barn nearby. But Collins' station wagon was destroyed.

Six tractors and two hay baling machines belong to the Smith Co. were saved.

Smith said the loss was only partially covered by insurance. He said damage to shop equipment alone was $10,000.

Cause of the fire was not determined immediately, firemen said.

Surveyor's Body Taken From River

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—The body of a 23-year-old man who drowned two weeks ago was found today in the Ouachita River 1 1/4 miles south of here.

Harold Briggs and Wallace Ford of El Dorado found the body of Eldon Fox floating in the river. Ouachita County Coroner W. H. Pruitt ruled Fox drowned accidentally.

Fox was a member of a five-man U.S. Engineers survey crew working on the Ouachita River March 29. The boat carrying the five men overturned. The other four made it to safety.

Fox is survived by a wife and one child. He was living in El Dorado at the time of his death. He is a native of Nebraska.

Pockets of Consumers Will Suffer

By ROGER LANE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The steel price boost will reach out to touch the pocketbooks of all consumers.

Just when and by how much can not readily be determined. But one thing was sure. That many, many items now made of steel—but not all—will cost more, from pots and pans to a new house or car.

These will be direct effects. An indirect impact, slower to develop and harder to recognize, will show up in many places for the household electricity bill when the utility has to pay more for power line poles and generator turbines.

The sum total influence on the cost of living and other barometers of the economy has been vigorously argued after past steel price hikes, and even hotter debate seemed in store this time.

President Kennedy opened it Wednesday.

"If this rise in the cost of steel is imitated by the rest of the industry, instead of rescinded, it would increase the cost of homes, autos, appliances, and most other items for every American family," he said.

The major automakers, like most other manufacturers, had no official comment on the $6 a ton price boost announced first by U.S. Steel Corp. and then by other big steel producers.

Students of the auto industry, in the middle of what promises to be one of its most prosperous years, doubted a rise in prices of 1962 model cars but thought a rise was probable on 1963 models.

Enriched Rice

WASHINGTON (A)—Five Louisiana members of Congress introduced bills Wednesday to permit distribution of enriched rice under the School Lunch program. The measures were introduced by Sens. Allen J. Ellender and Russell B. Long and Reps. T. A. Thompson, E. E. Willis and Hale Boggs, all Democrats. They said distribution of enriched food in the program was approved three years ago, but at that time the rice industry asked to be excluded. The industry now asks rice be included in the program. Ellender and Long said four other senators had joined in sponsoring the Senate bill, including Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark.

Testimony in Milk Case Continues

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—David L. Parr, once mentioned that it might be necessary to "run the price of raw milk up" in the Texarkana area in order to make the manager of the Borden Co.'s Texarkana milk plant "cooperate" with the Central Arkansas Milk Producers Association, the manager testified here Wednesday.

Mark K. Soderquist, the manager said CAMPA's secretary-manager made the comment in March 1960. Soderquist said Parr was trying to persuade him to buy all of the Borden plant's raw milk from producers who associated themselves with CAMPA.

CAMPA and Parr are charged by the Federal Trade Commission with conspiring to restrain or eliminate competition and with charging discriminatory prices to certain milk producers. They have denied the charges.

Soderquist and Paul H. Dixon Sr., president of the Dixon Dairy Co. Inc., of Little Rock, gave their testimony as the FTC hearing resumed following a three-day recess.

Dixon told hearing examiner Herman Tocker of Washington that during the fiscal year ending last June 30 he was forced to pay as much as 21 cents a gallon more than his competitors in the Little Rock area.

Dixon said the higher price was due to a "location differential" under which CAMPA charged less for milk processed for sale in eastern and northern Arkansas. He said CAMPA discontinued the differential on July 1, 1961.

Dixon said CAMPA offered him the discount if he wanted to go into eastern and northern Arkansas, but that his dairy does business in Pulaski and Lonoke counties.

The average family spends $66 a year on food. That's a lot less than some families spend annually for dining at a restaurant once a week.

Houston Colts Keep Rolling With Castoffs

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dean Fenech, 32, a left-hander who hurled a three-hit shutout for his first victory in the majors since 1957, is the newest hero on a rapidly growing list for the Houston Colts' all-conquering cast of castoffs.

Becoming the third former American League southpaw to win for the National League's new entry, Stone blanketed Chicago 2-0 Thursday for Houston's second straight shutout and third consecutive victory over the Cubs.

Stone, following the example set by Bobby Shantz and Hal Woodeshick, struck out nine, walked only two, permitted only one batter to reach second base and hurled no-hit ball for the final six innings.

Another auspicious beginning was made by Los Angeles southpaw Pete Richert, who tied three major league shutout records in the Dodgers 11-7 walloping of Cincinnati.

Coming on in relief, Richert struck out Vada Pinson to end a four-run rally in the second inning. He struck out four—one reached base when catcher John Roseboro let a third strike get past him—in the third inning, then fanned the first man he faced in the fourth before pitcher Joey Jay grounded out.

The six strikeouts tied the mark set in 1954 by the Dodgers' Karl Spooner for the most consecutive strikeouts by a pitcher making his major league debut and equalled the mark for relief pitchers established by Philadelphia's Jack Meyer in 1953. The four in one inning matched an often accomplished feat.

San Francisco walloped Milwaukee 8-4 in the only other game scheduled.

In the American League, Los Angeles' Ken McBride shut out Chicago 1-0 with a four-bitter and Minnesota defeated Kansas City 9-5. Detroit and Washington were rained out and the other clubs were not scheduled.

Stone got the run he needed on Hal Smith's run-producing single in the fourth and received some working room when Bob Anderson wild pitched Bob Aspromonte home in the eighth. Jack Curtis started for the Colts and took the loss.

The Dodgers chased Reds' starter Joey Jay, who lost his second, in the fifth when a seven-run outburst. Wally Moon's double knocked in the run that snapped a 4-4 tie. Roseboro doubled, took third when pitcher Bob Miller threw to first thinking Roseboro had missed the bag and scored when the return throw to third went wild. Richert got the victory.

Shortstop Jose Pagan drove in four runs for the Giants and scored a run to make Jack Sanford's mound chores easier. Bob Ruhl absorbed the defeat for the Braves.

Whooping Crane Under Treatment

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A four-day-old whooping crane, one of only 4 such birds in existence, was flown here from the Audubon Park Zoo in New Orleans Thursday for treatment of a slipped tendon in its right leg.

George Douglas, superintendent of the zoo, brought the whooper for examination by veterinarians on the research staff of the Ralston Purina Co.

The researchers quickly diagnosed the ailment and started treatments.

The whooping crane, fifth hatched at the Audubon Park Zoo, is slightly larger than a duckling. It was unable to stand without toppling over on its side because of the defect.

First church organ probably was used during the time of Pope Vitalian I in the 600s A. D.

13 Reasons You Can Bet on This One

SOAP LAKE, Wash. (AP)—These are the 13 reasons you can bet on Beth Scheib to succeed as a farmer: A widow's courage and one dozen little Scheibs aged 2 months to 14 years.

Every Scheib helps—even baby Larry, whose yells for dinner punctuate the need for making the Scheib acres provide a living. Pretty Beth their age you can't have, but she was married at 17, was widowed last August when a plane crash killed Lawrence Scheib and two neighbors.

"The bankers, Farm Home Administration advisers and everyone else told me to sell out and move to town," Beth says.

"What could I do in town with 12 children? For the price of a year's payment on the farm I couldn't even rent a house."

"I'm trying it my own way." Her own way is driving the tractor, plowing the fields, harvesting the alfalfa. When the older children are in school she pays a baby sitter 50 cents an hour to watch the smaller tykes.

"I couldn't hire a man for 50 cents an hour and I couldn't pay more," says realistic Mrs. Scheib.

Steve is 11 and the man of the family. "You kids," he says earnestly, "keep away from the tractor!"

Linda, 14, and Kathy, 13, are the big girls who help with the housework. Jerry is 10, Clifford 9 and Jim is 8; strong farmhands all. They feed the livestock and help with the irrigation. Doing what they can to help are Peggy, 7; Barbara 5; Don, 4; Wally, 2; The Scheib farm is 10 acres but 65 more are cultivated for Mrs. Leonard McNamara, a neighbor widowed by the same crash that left 12 Scheibs fatherless.

"We raise our own beef for the locker," Mrs. Scheib says. "We plan to build up our herd of cattle. We used to have a truck garden but I think we'll skip the garden patch and stick to real farming. This is our trial year."

It takes about $200 a month in hard cash to feed the tribe of Scheibs.

de Gaulle in Threat to Monaco

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle's government has threatened to strip Monaco of its privileged economic ties with France unless the pocket principality goes along with the French tax system.

The Cabinet directed Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville Wednesday to take steps for renunciation of the 1951 good neighbor treaty with the Riviera resort that has become a tax haven.

The French move appeared a pressure tactic. No date was set for scrapping the treaty, which would take effect six months after formally renounced.

Prince Rainier III, Grace Kelly's husband who rules the Mediterranean playground and paradise for tax refugees, has stubbornly refused the French demands for revisions in the treaty to extend the French tax system to Monaco.

More than 2,000 companies with in recent years have set up dummy headquarters in the principality and many rich have taken Monacan citizenship to escape French income and other taxes.

Cancellation of the treaty would set up French custom barriers around Monaco, take it out of the French postal and communications system and deprive Monacan children of their present right to attend French schools.

According to Virgil in the "Aeneid" only mortal ever carried over the River Styx was Aeneas.

Two Porkers Injured in Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks, minus two players injured in a Thursday practice session, will work out today and scrimmage Saturday before some 350 high school coaches in town for a two-day clinic.

Two sophomore backs, Fred Marshall and Harry Sayles of Memphis, Tenn., were hurt in a Thursday practice session that Coach Frank Broyles termed "the worst we have had."

Marshall may be out 10 days with a sprained knee. Sayles bruised three ribs and may return early next week.

Some 40 coaches, early arrivals for the annual spring clinic sponsored by the university, watched the Thursday workout. Alvin Roy of Baton Rouge, La., will explain isometric traction for football, a series of prepared tests through which Broyles says "athletes are learning to develop their full physical potential."

The coaches, from throughout Arkansas and the Southwest Conference, also will hear Bill Pace, newest member of the Razorback coaching staff, lecture on the Kansas sliding slot formation. Pace worked with Jack Mitchell at Kansas before coming to Arkansas.

Broyles said the workout before the coaches Thursday was even worse than "the first one we held this spring. They had no zip," he commented.

The regular quarterback Billy Moore and right halfback Jesse Branch sat out the filmed session in sweat clothes. Broyles said they will remain sidelined until the coaches finish their look at younger players.

Interstate Work Moving Along Some

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—When work begins on a $2.3 million highway contract awarded Wednesday, paving of all but 10 miles of Interstate Route 55 will be completed or underway.

Completion of the 68-mile route from Memphis to the Missouri line is scheduled for July, 1963.

By that date the Greater Little Rock Expressway should be in service.

These were the first major projects the Highway Department undertook six years ago when it laid out long-range plans under the National Interstate and Defense Highways Act.

Arkansas was allocated 520 miles of interstate highways in five segments—three major ones and two short ones. Completion of Interstate 55 will permit acceleration of work on the other routes.

These are: Route 40, from the Mississippi River near West Memphis to the Oklahoma line near Fort Smith, a total of 236 miles.

Route 30, from a connection with Route 40 north of Little Rock to the Texas state line at Texarkana, a total of 143 miles.

Route 430, connecting Routes 40 and 30 west of Little Rock and including a fourth bridge across the Arkansas River, 33 miles.

Route 540, a spur linking Fort Smith with Route 30, 9 miles.

Route 55 already is in use from West Memphis to Lake Daud, a distance of 20 miles. Paving work is underway on a 30-mile stretch northward to Highway 158. The contract let Wednesday is for paving 10 miles from Highway 158 north to the Lemfords grade crossing.

Grade preparation is near completion on the 10 miles from Lemfords to the Missouri line and a contract for paving this segment routes are in planning stages.

Housing Unit Bids

MENA, Ark. (AP)—An apparent low bid of $374,500 was submitted Wednesday by Phillips and Porterfield Construction Co., of Texarkana for construction of 44 public housing units here. Four contractors offered bids on the project, which is being financed by a federal loan to the city Housing Authority.

will be let this year, the Highway Department says.

All work required on the Little Rock Expressway, part of Route 30, is under contract. The Expressway Bridge, over which it will cross the Arkansas River, already is in use.

The eight-mile expressway lies in at the south with the oldest completed segment of Arkansas interstate highway, a 20-mile segment to Benton. About four miles of this segment will be taken off the interstate system when the link is made.

Route 30 is complete from that point southwestward to two miles southwest of Benton. Grading and drainage structure work is underway between Benton and the Ouachita River and a contract has been let for a bridge to carry the highway over the river.

Route 40 is complete from the Mississippi River to two miles west of Lehi. Contracts for initial work on a 9.4-mile segment from the Oklahoma line to Subley's grade crossing have been let.

Contracts have been let to carry Route 40 eastward from its junction with Route 30 at Little Rock to the Lonoke County line. Work on the westward segment has been held up by right of way disputes.

A contract has been let for construction of an interchange at Texarkana where Route 30 crosses

Other segments of the various routes are in planning stages.

Feels Celtics Hold Inside Track Now

BOSTON (AP)—Boston Coach Red Auerbach feels the Celtics have regained the upper hand in the National Basketball Association playoff finals.

"The series has now turned in our favor—let them worry," Auerbach said Thursday after a Celtics comeback had produced a 115-103 victory over Los Angeles and knotted the best-of-seven competition 2-2.

The teams meet here Saturday night and in Los Angeles Monday. If a seventh game is needed it will be in Boston Wednesday night.

Laker hopes to foil Boston's bid for an unprecedented fourth straight NBA playoff title appear to rest squarely at the foul line.

In all four games to date, win or lose, Boston has managed more field goals but the Lakers have averaged nearly 15 more free throw chances per contest.

Altogether, Los Angeles has converted 139 of 173 chances, Boston 88 of 116.

Congress Doubles the Peace Corps

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has voted to more than double the Peace Corps budget and let the agency sign up thousands of new volunteers.

The Senate passed the authorization bill Thursday and sent it to President Kennedy, who had asked for the expansion.

Under the measure, Kennedy is authorized to spend $63.75 million to put 9,970 volunteers into the corps by the fall of 1963.

The Peace Corps now has about 900 volunteers, but expects to have 2,400 on its roster by June 30, and 5,100 by next fall.

May Run for High Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Warren E. Wood, 63, a Little Rock attorney, indicated Thursday he is considering running for a vacant position on the Arkansas Supreme Court.

"I've been encouraged and am giving the matter considerable thought," Wood said.

Wood said he is considering seeking the position vacated last year by Justice J. S. Holt who retired. The post is now filled by Neill Bohlinger, an appointee, who cannot succeed himself.

J. Fred Jones, a North Little Rock attorney, already has filed as a candidate for the position and Atty. Gen. Frank Holt says he may run for it.

Wood is a native of Tiller and a graduate of the University of Arkansas Law School. He formerly practiced law in McGehee and was an FBI agent.

McBride Hurls Shutout for the L. A. Angels

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

What's this? The American League a pitchers' haven!

The same sluggers who smashed a record of 1,534 homers during the 1961 campaign have been the victims of four shutouts in nine games this season—the latest Ken McBride's four-hit job that gave the Los Angeles Angels a 1-0 triumph over the Chicago White Sox Thursday.

McBride, 26, a right-hander, hooked up in a pitchers' duel with White Sox rookie Jon Horlen and kept the Chicagoans away from the plate until Leon Wagner hit a 0-1 pitch for a home run leading off the ninth inning.

McBride, 12-15 last year, had to survive a rocky first inning in which a potential White Sox run was thrown out at the plate.

Luis Aparicio opened with a walk, then stole second. When Nellie Fox batted a hit to center, the left White Sox shortstop tried to come around and score. Lee Thomas' peg on the fly to catcher Bob Rodgers nailed Aparicio.

Minnesota belted Kansas City 9-5 in the only other game played. Detroit and Washington were rained out for the second straight day and the other clubs were not scheduled.

The Tigers will try to get a game in today, opening at home against the New York Yankees, but the Twins already have been snowed out of today's scheduled curtain-raiser at home against the Angels. Other home openers have Boston at Baltimore and Washington at Cleveland.

In the National League Thursday, Houston's Colts won their third straight, and second in a row by shutout when former AL pitcher Dean Stone three-hit Chicago. Los Angeles thumped Cincinnati 11-7 and San Francisco defeated Milwaukee 8-4.

While McBride was keeping the White Sox scoreless, Horlen, 24, was equally as effective against the Angels. The right-hander ended up with a five-inning and the tough loss.

Rookie Joe Bonikowski, 21, a right-hander, pitched 5 1/3 innings of strong relief and won it for the Twins by singling and scoring the go-ahead run in the fifth on Bob Allison's single. He gave up only one run after Dick Howser's homer had chased Minnesota starter Don Lee. Norm Bass took the loss for the A's.
